NO. 10.

Whereas, the Congress of the United States did, on the 3d day of March, A. D., 1891, make an appropriation of the sum of $2,991,450 in favor of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations of Indians, for all their rights, title and interest in certain lands west of 98 degrees west longitude, and now occupied by the Cheyenne and Arapahoe tribes of Indians.

And whereas; the attorneys and others employed in the prosecution of the claim by the commissioners appointed by the Choctaw government, have failed to procure the payment of said appropriation to the Treasurer of the Choctaw Nation, as required by the act of the General Council of April, 1891.

And whereas; it appears that the contracts made by said commissioners with their attorneys have never been approved by the Interior Department, as required by the United States Statutes, thereby precluding said attorneys from being of any use to the Choctaw Nation in procuring said appropriation, and it is believed that said attorneys, with supposed contracts, are an absolute hindrance to the prompt payment of said appropriation, thereby depriving the Choctaws of their just dues; therefore SECTION 1. Be it further enacted by the General Council of the Choctaw Nation; that any and all contracts made by the Choctaw commissioners with any attorneys in connection with the appropriation of $2,991,450 and not approved by the Department of the Interior, are hereby declared void and of no effect.

SEC. 2. That the principal Chief of the Choctaw Nation and the National Treasurer and the special delegate heretofore appointed be and they are hereby authorized and directed to proceed at once to Washington City, D. C., and make a formal demand for said money, and to this end they are authorized to procure such assistance and to take the necessary steps to procure said money before the first day of December, 1891, and they are further authorized to sign the necessary relinquishments to said lands west of 98 degrees west longitude, now occupied by the Cheyenne and Arapahoe tribes of Indians.

SEC. 3. That all acts or parts of acts, resolutions or parts of resolutions, except the disbursement bill, known as the "Per Capita Bill," of April, 1891, coming in conflict with this act, are hereby repealed; and this act to take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved Oct. 19, 1891.

NO. 47.

A MEMORIAL.

To the Congress of the United States:

Whereas; there seems to be a systematic effort being made to induce the next United States Congress to give to the United States courts now established in the Indian Territory full jurisdiction of all offenses committed herein against the United States, to create more courts and to enlarge their jurisdiction.

Therefore, be it resolved by the General Council of the Choctaw Nation assembled; that Congress is hereby earnestly requested not to respond to such efforts for the following reasons:

SECTION 1. Almost without exception, the people who are engaged in the movement to enlarge the jurisdiction of the United States courts in the Indian Territory, are those whose only interests would be subserved by contention, strife, litigation and crime, the more of which they can stir up, the better for them, and the more there should be of good order, peace, law abiding, well-being and happiness of society, the more they would be deprived of their means of support.

SEC. 2. This results, in a great measure, from the unlawful occupation of the Indian Territory by intruders, whose presence is in itself a violation of law. The way to punish them is to remove them as the treaties provide. It will cost the government less to remove them than to try them.

SEC. 3. A very large majority of the crimes and offenses against the laws of the United States, committed in the Indian Territory, are committed by citizens of the United States, and the natural and proper place to try them is among their own people.

SEC. 4. Many of the people who would be called upon to execute the laws for these grave offenses are intruders and many of them stained with crime themselves, and ought not to be depended upon.

SEC. 5. The United States courts outside of the Indian Territory, as now constituted, are executing the laws efficiently and no changes should be made therein.

Be it further resolved, that the National Secretary is hereby instructed to send a certified copy of this memorial, each to the President of the Senate of the United States and the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives: and this resolution shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.
